«Our Engineering Week»

On January 29 our Engineering Week started at Orikhiv School No. 5. Have you ever made different models from scrap materials?

Ordinary things, which were lying quietly on the shelves, came to life during the week in the skillful hands of our incredible pupils.

I think there are no children who would be indifferent to tricks! It's so exciting! Especially if, using the laws of mathematics, you can surprise your peers and do the trick yourself.

"Mathematics is the science of young people. It cannot be otherwise. Studying mathematics is such mental gymnastics that requires all the flexibility and endurance of youth." Words of the German mathematician R. Wiener

«World Read Aloud Day»

Every year on the first Wednesday of February, the world celebrates an interesting and rather young holiday – World Read Aloud Day. The event was launched by the international educational project "LitWorld" in 2010. This special day marked by various activities and events, aims to show the power of words and the joy of reading around the world. Pupils and teachers of our Orikhiv School №5 supported this holiday and demonstrated their reading skills.

In today's digital age, reading aloud remains a powerful tool for personal development. It contributes to the improvement of understanding of the text, the development of speech and emotional intelligence. Also, reading aloud is an important element in children's education, because it helps to expand vocabulary and improve concentration.

"Sport gathers friends"

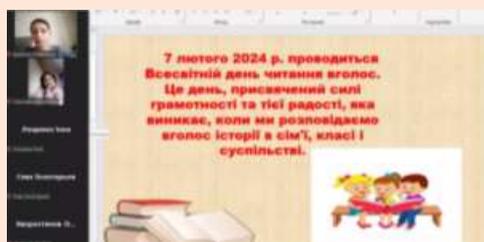

On February 9, the traditional sports and entertainment competition "Sport gathers friends" was held, the main purpose of which was to strengthen the health of children, parents and teachers of Orikhiv School №5, and to foster love for physical culture. The meeting showed what a real strong and friendly school family is like in which everyone helps each other and provides support.

Contestants gave themselves and the audience moments of unforgettable joy. There were no winners that day, because everyone without exception received a charge of positivity and sweet prizes from "Domikpha".

Sincere gratitude to Aksyonova Olena Petrovna, head of the Department of Rehabilitation Pedagogy and Healthy Lifestyle of the Zaporizhzhia Regional Institute of Postgraduate Pedagogical Education, for her help in organizing a wonderful sports festival!

The World Day of Reading Aloud

On the 7- th of January the pupils of Forms 6-A,B, 7-A,B of School№3 took part in the event dedicated to the World Day of Reading Aloud . They answered the questions of the quiz about the characters of their favourite fairytales, completed the proverbs about books, and of course read aloud a lot of poems and some paragraphs from their favourite books!

Reading aloud is always necessary, important and useful!
