Our winners of the All-Ukrainian Internet Olympiad in English

On January 11, 2023, the most famous national university in Ukraine, Ostroh Academy, hospitably welcomed the participants of the All-Ukrainian Internet Olympiad in English. Our support institution was represented by 37 students of grades 8-11.

At all stages of the competition, students confidently demonstrated their unparalleled skills and practical skills in English and also made sure that their knowledge acquired in "Suzirya" is competitive.

Applause to our stars who showed a very good result:

Makar Starikov, a student of the 8th grade (teacher-mentor O.V. Selivanova). Makar won 2nd place among participating 8th grade students and became the winner. Pihulya Valeriya, a student of the 11th grade (teacher-mentor Sinchilo I.A.), who won the victory among the 11th grade students and took an honorable 2nd place.

Congratulations to our participating students, winners and their mentors! We wish you the realization of your plans and dreams, creativity and success, and the realization of your goals in the near future for the benefit of Ukraine.

CONGRATULATIONS ON THE VICTORY!

We congratulate the teacher of physical education of the communal institution "Support institution of general secondary education "Suzirya" of the Orikhiv city council Viktoriya Romanivna Marych for taking the 3rd place in the regional stage of the All-Ukrainian competition "Teacher of the Year - 2023" in the nomination "Physical Education".

Viktoriya Romanivna always keeps up with the times, shows a high intellectual and professional level, and most importantly, does not stop at what she has achieved!

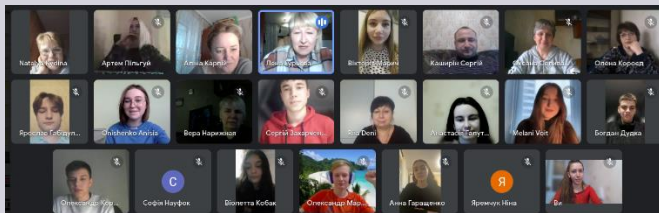

The year of indomitability!
